

A vibrant banner for a nursery department. At the top, four children are joyfully jumping over a stylized globe that features the Eiffel Tower and a pagoda. The globe is set on a blue cloud-like base with a wooden fence. The central text 'NURSERY DEPARTMENT' is written in large, bold, red capital letters on a white cloud-shaped background. Below the cloud, on the left and right sides, are stacks of colorful books. Children are depicted interacting with the books: some are sitting on top of the stacks, some are sitting on the floor reading, and others are standing and talking. The entire scene is set against a light blue background.

- Table etiquette plays an important part in making a favourable impression. We believe in catching them young, teaching them the correct way to hold cutlery etc. in a happy and fun manner, which will stay with them forever.
- Finally, it has long been proven that eating together can provide health benefits, reduce anxiety and improve self-esteem.

Our mid day meal consists of nourishing food with a lot of variety, making it an enjoyable experience for the children.
